I have no words. I am sad he is gone. Glad I met him. And up set, because time ran out to do or say thing I wanted to say to him. I am so thankful God allowed me to know such an amazing man.He had qualities that now a day are hard to find.A man of his word, a true friend at heart.He touched my life and I will never forget him. Lindy and family, I'm truly sorry for your loss.

Andy was a great guy who's wit and humor will be missed. I knew him at Word of Christ in Bradenton, FL, where he selflessly gave of himself at the Encounters (where men come to know Christ). Enjoy eternity with The King of kings, Andy!

Andy was truly a good friend. We always had fun when we were all together. We would go out to dinners together, play cards and watch great movies. We even played Wii bowling together. Bill & I will miss him a lot but we do have some great memories for sure. We are just grateful to know we will see him again in Heaven one day. We love you Andy!!! So glad God brought you into our lives. Bill & Mary Ann Kringel
