What a joy and privilege I had being Ginny, Ron, and Rebecca's pastor back in the early 90's. They were so faithful. Ginny always had a smile and a word of encouragement. My only regret was that I could not cause Ron to have enough faith to drive a car. Whenever I tried he would say " come on and get in and go with me". Ginny would always remind us we were both nuts. I sure do love that family.

Just to know Ginny was to love her. I am so thankful God gave me the privilege to have her in my life, as a friend, and wonderful sister to Kitty. She was a great person and will be missed. Prayers of peace to Ron and family.
