Margaret Ann Clothier

OCT 20, 2012

Margaret Ann Clothier Margaret Ann Clothier (née Rowe), age 67, passed away on October 11, 2012 in Palm Coast, Florida surrounded by loving family and friends. She was born on March 14, 1945 in St. John's, Newfoundland, Canada to Kathleen Rowe (née Stanley) and the late Maxwell Rowe. Margaret was called "Shirley" by family and friends, while her adoring husband called her "Maggie."

Margaret moved to Florida in 1977 from Newfoundland, Canada. Every summer she returned to Newfoundland to visit family and watch the whales in the bay. Then when the whales left, she would too; returning to spend winter in Florida. She enjoyed crocheting, reading, playing scrabble, and collecting Hummels. Rug hooking was her real passion; she drew her own designs and was a member of the Rug Hooking Guild of Newfoundland and Labrador. Margaret also enjoyed spending time with her best friends the "YaYa Sisters." She loved her family very dearly, especially her grandchildren whom she called "grandbabies."

Throughout her life, Margaret (Shirley) enjoyed working with people. As a young woman, she was a psychiatric aide at The Waterford Hospital in St John's, Newfoundland. Later, she managed Mary Brown's restaurants in Central and Avalon regions of Newfoundland. When she moved to Florida, she became a regional manager for Taco Bell. Following a personal passion, she moved into retail management, specifically jewelry! And finally, she became a nail technician, where she formed lasting friendships with many of the women who came into the salons where she worked.

Margaret is preceded in death by her father Maxwell Rowe and brother Kevin Rowe.

She is survived by her loving husband of 18 years Robert Clothier; son John Orren and wife Kristin of Orlando, FL; daughter Kimberly Orren of Gainesville, FL and fiancé Leo Hearn of Newfoundland; her stepchildren Sandy Michaud and husband Tony, Rusty Zimmerman and wife Lisa, Todd Clothier and wife Cristi; her mother Kathleen Rowe of Newfoundland; her brothers Alfred Rowe and wife Marilyn, David Rowe and fiancé Hazel Rideout, Roger Rowe and wife

So sorry to hear of Shirleys passing. We had recently met in St. Johns even though we were cousins. Shirley had invited my mom, her Aunt Betty, myself, and my sister Caroline, and my cousins to the Browne's summer house on Bell Island. We had a wonderful visit that we will never forget. Our condolences to her husband Bob and her children. We certainly will be attending her memorial service in St. Johns. She will be in our prayers and may she rest in peace. Bob, John, Kristin and families,Please accept our condolences during this difficult time in your lives. We hope you find peace and love through the sadness. We will miss Shirley "Maggie" each and everyday, but especially during the summer months when she would visit us here in Newfoundland. We always looked forward to seeing the "Florida plates" pull into our driveways. Shirley was as silly "as a bag of nails" and could always get a chuckle. We will miss the card games, the drinks, and the road trips. Thanks for the memories Shirley. Take Care Bob. Don't be a stranger. Love, Johnny, Rosie and Doug, Kim, Paulette and their families.

My heartfelt condolences Bob to you & your family on Margaret's passing. George & I always loved & enjoyed your company. Hold fast to your memories, to all the cherished moments of the past, to the blessings & laughter, the Joys & Celebrations, the Sorrow & Tears. Bob they all add up to a Treasure of fond & fun yesterdays that I know you both shared & spent together & they will always keep Margaret close to you in Spirit & thought. I have to tell myself that every day about George & also thank God they are both out of there suffering & pain. Bob I surely do know & feel your pain but some day I hope it will get better. George & I were so pleased you both got to see & visited him while in hospital but, little did we know he would pass away that night. Bob, I hope you know you & Margaret were always welcomed in our home we both enjoyed & will always cherish & remember you company. Margaret was a beautiful & good friend of mine & I will miss her dearly. Take care Bob & always remember you & your family are in my thoughts & prayers as you all go to this very sad time together. We both have our own Angel's to watch over us. Good- bye Margaret until we meet again, fly with the Angel's. LINDA.
