Clarence V. (Budd) Gellner

Clarence V. (Budd) Gellner passed away Tuesday, Dec. 17, 2013 in Port Orange, FL., at the age of 76 years, after a long battle with pulmonary lung disease. Budd, formerly of Moundsville, WV, currently resided in Daytona Beach, FL, as his last journey of life.

Budd was an avid hunter, fisherman, self-taught, successful entrepreneur with Budd Gellner Body Shop and Stanley Steemer Carpet Cleaner for over 40 years. He was the kindest, sweetest person and will be missed by everyone who came into contact with him.

He is survived by his wife of 53 years, Sally; daughter, Dawn Trott (Rick) of Manchester, MI; son, Mark Gellner (Connie) of Lake Mary, FL; sister, Susie Young (Gene) of Moundsville, WV; many nieces and nephews; 6 grandchildren; and 3 great grandchildren.

In lieu of flowers, the family is requesting a donation in his honor be made to the American Lung Assoc.

A Celebration of Life, to celebrate the memory of Budd, will be announced at a later date.

All arrangements are under the care of Heritage Funeral & Cremation Service, Port Orange, FL.

Sally Dawn Mark and family What a great man. He will be missed. I loved him like a "brother". So glad we had our hour long conversation in Nov. Reminiscing about things that happened when we were kids. We laughed that whole hour. I will miss you dear nephew. "Aunt" Arlyn

Budd was a good friend, a proud husband, father and grandfather. We spent hours fishing together. He talked about his family with such pride. He was always there to help with business ideas. Budd found the good in people, and ignored those less-than-perfect traits. We miss him. Our condolences to his family.

So sorry for your family's loss. Although I didn't know Budd very well, I liked him from the moment we met. I believe what you said to be true.... he will be missed by everyone who came into contact with him. My father and Budd were quite close. They came into Stanley Steemer at around the same time all of those years ago. Put quite simply Budd was a great man. From our Steemer family to yours, God Bless and we hope to see you soon, Sincerely, GC Quatela
