

Deborah Fenimore Barclay

DEC 16, 2014

Scan to Visit

Table of Contents

Obituary	Page 3
Tribute Wall	Page 5

Deborah Fenimore Barclay

DEC 16, 2014

Deborah Fenimore Barclay
Deborah Fenimore Barclay, 54, passed away peacefully Monday, Nov. 24, 2014, while in the compassionate care of Stuart F. Meyer Hospice House. Debbie was valiantly battling her second round of breast cancer.

Debbie was predeceased by her first husband, Richard Fenimore, who passed away unexpectedly in 1995. She is survived by her second husband, Richard Barclay, of St. Augustine, FL.

She is also survived by her father Stanley Soderberg (Montrose, PA); daughter Amie Williams (Palm Coast, FL); two sons Ryan Fenimore (St. Augustine, FL) and Daniel Barclay (Palm Coast, FL); granddaughter Emma Williams (Palm Coast, FL); her sister Rebecca Cole (Montrose, PA); nieces Valerie Cole (Deerfield Beach, FL) and Michelle Washburn (Montrose, PA). She is also survived by countless friends and loved ones from all over the country.

Born in Camden, New Jersey, in 1960, Debbie graduated from Moorestown High School and went on to earn a degree in Human Services from Luzerne County Community College in Northeast PA.

For many years Debbie worked as an executive assistant in the nursing program at the Elk Lake campus of Luzerne County Community College. She also served as supervisor of a census-taking team in Susquehanna County, PA for the 2010 national census.

In the '90s, Debbie and her family moved to Florida where she became employed by Bottom Line Yacht Club out of the Conch House marina in St. Augustine, FL and she also worked as an assistant for a CPA.

Before relocating back to Florida last year in hopes of starting her own spice business, she was employed by the state's Dept. of Aging as manager of the Blue Ridge Senior Center in Great Bend, PA.

Obituary

Deborah Fenimore Barclay

After taking care of her mother, Anita Soderberg, who passed away 3 years prior, Debbie moved back to Florida to be closer to her children and granddaughter.

Debbie was one-of-a-kind, and she will be missed dearly by so many. She loved hummingbirds, taking countless photos, nature, living near the beach, and cooking among many other things. She had plans to hike the Appalachian Trail.

An informal gathering or “Celebration of Life” will take place come spring in Montrose, PA., among close family and friends.

Arrangements are under the care of Heritage Funeral & Cremation Service, Port Orange, FL.

Tribute Wall

Deborah Fenimore Barclay

D2

Don & Debra Gordon-Feb. 20, 2015 posted:

Dearest Daniel, Amie and Ryan, We only just found out about your beloved Mother a few moments ago. We can't begin to tell you how saddened we are to know that incredible, wonderful, beautiful person is gone from us. Daniel we love you and your Mother so much. We had so many precious moments with you, and your Mom and Dad. We were in St. Augustine in November and tried in vain to get in touch with you guys. We are so sorry Daniel that we were not there for you and your family to lend some comfort. Words cannot express how much we love you and your parents. Your Mom is at peace now in heaven with our Father and no longer suffering. We are here for you Daniel, and we will see you when we are in St. Aug. again. And you know you are always welcome in our home. You are a Son to us. We love you! I pray God will give you and your family peace in your hearts and minds. (Phil4:7) God Bless! Much Love & Sadness. Debra, Don, Daniel & Jacob Gordon

February 20 at 6:02 PM

DC

Dan Cole posted:

I am very sorry for your loss. It can be hard for friends and family to find the right words to express at a time like this. Thankfully, we can echo the comforting words that we read in the Bible. At Revelation 21:4 it tells us that the God of all comfort will soon do away with all suffering, sickness, tears, and death. Along with that promise and the one we read at John 5: 28, 29 we have a solid hope for the future. Until then, may your loving memories bring relief during this difficult time. Your family has my sincerest condolences.

December 22 at 7:35 AM

Memories only last if you share them

Join us in honoring Deborah by contributing to a collection of shared memories.

Scan to Visit

