It's been a year now. I still miss you like crazy. I love you in an amazing way. I still cry for you. I wish you were still here with us. But you got your wish. You kept saying when the time came to let you go and be happy for you. You were ready to go. I just can't do that because I miss you so much. I am happy you are no longer in pain. I am happy you were right with the Lord. I am happy you left us so peacefully. I am happy you are with your grandmother. You missed her so much. I'll see you again. And what a reunion it will be. I love you Chris. Forever, your Mom

Chris, you and I were the best of friends growing up. We went through all our milestones together, going from bike to cars, we double dated for prom and some much more. You will truly be missed. Love you chris ❤️😭

Christopher, you were such a delight and a honor to call you my son. Your short journey of life took many turns. But you always filled my heart with love. I only wanted what was best for you. I tried to make things easier for you. I just wanted you to be happy. Maybe to a fault of mine. I miss you so much. My comfort is that you called me to tell me about an experience you had with Jesus. You wanted me to know your heart was right with God and were ready to go when God said that was OK. You've left behind many of us that are sad you aren't here with us. I'd love to hear your voice. I wish I would have recorded all of your sweet messages. Go rest high on the mountain. Give your Grandma's, grandpa and the others that have gone before us hugs. Forever in my heart baby.
