It was an honor to know Howard for many years; he was a devoted Christian and always a Southern gentleman. We were around him and the whole family in church for years, and the influence of his and Lillian's faith, and their closeness as a family, was obvious. We have many happy memories!

I remember being little and going tubing while on vacation. I fell out of my tube and Pepa scooped me right up. I stayed in his arms the whole time. Once Pepa & I went out to eat, just the two of us. We went to Cracker Barrel, and he told me stories about being in the Navy. One memory I have (that I will greatly miss) was each time I would leave his house to go home, we would hug each other and he would always tell me to "be careful, drive safe". I love my Pepa and will greatly miss him!!
