Dorothy "Dottie" E Clair

NOV 29, 1941 - OCT 7, 2020

Heaven opened its doors on the early morning hours of October 7, 2020 and took our precious Angel Dottie home. She fought a long, courageous battle for the past eight years.

Always had a smile on her face, humor and wit, and full of love until the very last days.

Dotti was a wonderful Christian woman her entire life. A faithful servant of the Lord and a heart of love for all.

She married the love of her life in 1959 and they had an amazing life for 61 years.

They always called each other "Hon" in all those years.

Loving wife, mother, grandmother, great grandmother. Children and family were her life.

She raised us 5 kids, countless foster children, and granddaughter Chantelle Marie, until her passing.

Dottie is survived by her true love, Harry Sr., sons: Harry Jr., Steven, David, and daughter Dawn; grandchildren: Carissa, Christopher, Cheyne, Josh, Rachel and Hannah; great-grandchildren: Austin, Madison, Caden and Lilly.

She is predeceased by daughter Kathy Lynn and granddaughter Chantelle Marie.

Our hearts are broken – you were so special and loved. Until we meet again – we know that you will be among us always.

We love you!!

How strange that I stumbled upon this. I have fond memories of your family back in New Jersey so many years ago. Your mom was always so kind and I pray she is at peace. Much love- Brian Marshall
