David J Bundoc

APR 28, 1960 - SEP 15, 2021

It is with great sadness that we have suddenly lost “The Man, The Myth, The Legend” David J. Bundoc on September 15 2021, at the young age of 61.

David is predeceased by his parents Patricia DeLorme and George Bundoc as well as his nephew Joseph McGary. He is survived by his special friend Eileen Patocka, his sisters; Sheila Pimentel, Amy McGary and brother Rosario Bundoc; his children Krystle (James) Wilkins, Jennifer Bundoc and fiancé Ricky Lane and David Bundoc; his beloved grandchildren Zachariah Wilkins, Nathanael Wilkins, James Wilkins Jr., Derek (Geo) Tuckey, Haleigh Wilkins, Jacob Wilkins and Nicholas Cassata; nieces, nephews cousins, his best friends and many other loved ones.

David had a true passion and God given talent for woodworking. He would freely gift his creations to those he was close to. He was a valued employee of Value City/American Signature for 26 years where he would devotedly repair furniture. A Celebration of Life gatherings are being planned for a later date in Daytona Beach, Florida and Rochester, New York. Please check the Facebook page Remembering David John Bundoc The Man, The Myth, The Legend for updates. Sharing your memories and pictures are encouraged.

Eileen Patocka posted:

David was a very special man who gave me his love and friendship and made me a better person. He freely gave love and laughter to everyone in his life. How he loved music and loved to sing, it truly touched his heart. What he loved most was his family, especially his children and grandchildren. His talent for furniture repair was magic, he could fix anything. But his special gift was his woodworking, and many of us have items he made with love. He will be truly missed and will remain unforgettable to so many. RIP, David, I love you. Eileen
