I will truly miss knowing you were there if I needed you and I enjoyed being available for you at any time you needed me. I guess that what a true friend really is. I will never know a more caring and giving friend then you who never wanted anything in return. I will cherish the many laughs we had throughout the years. I know that you can see again and know how much you are loved by everyone. I don't know why God needed you now but I wish he would give you one more day on earth. I would go back 25 years before I was married when we would have one of those late night phone calls when neither of us could stop laughing. When you left the laughter stopped. You will always be in my heart. Rest in peace.

I meet Delores at PCD, she worked with me on my team. She was the most caring, loving, giving person that you could have known. She was very smart, and witty. She will be missed by many. A good life taken too soon. She is in the arms of the lord, with no more sickness.
