Agnes Marie Lau

DEC 9, 1939 - JUL 7, 2025

Agnes Marie Lau (Lechowicz), 85, of Palm Coast, Florida, passed peacefully into the arms of her Heavenly Father on July 7, 2025.

Born on December 9, 1939, in Cleveland, Ohio, Agnes relocated her family to Ormond Beach in October 1973, and eventually moved to Palm Coast where she spent over five decades devoted to her family, her faith, and caring for others. On September 17, 1986 she married Leonard “Lenny” Lau. Their marriage was not built on grand gestures, but on quiet enduring commitment. Over the years, he became not just a husband but a caregiver – offering steady support, patience and care especially in times when it was most needed.

Agnes was preceded in death by her beloved parents, Benedict T. and Katherine M. Lechowicz (Heck), a brother, Benedict Lechowicz, and her grandson, Dustin Holyko. She was a loving mother to Kathi (Russ) Kershaw (Holyko), Paul Holyko, and Charlene (Chester) Webb (O’Hara); a proud grandmother to Adam (Ashley), Sarah (Alex), Bianca, Blake (Brittany), Amber, Ashley (Caleb), and Dakota; and a doting great-grandmother to Gianna, Emma, Kailey, Cameron, Maximus, Austin, Axel, Westyn, and Ryker.

A true caregiver at heart, Agnes dedicated her life to helping others. She worked for many years as a Certified Nursing Assistant, offering compassionate care both privately and in nursing homes – including Bowman’s in Ormond Beach and Flagler Pines in Bunnell – until her retirement in 2010. Her kindness, patience, and nurturing spirit left a lasting mark on the lives she touched.

Faith was the cornerstone of Agnes’s life. She had a deep love for her Heavenly Father and was a devoted member of Calvary Christian Center Ormond Beach and later Trinity Church Deltona, attending whenever her health would allow and when it wouldn’t she faithfully watched online. Her quiet strength and deep spirituality were evident to all who knew her.
