Michael Andrew Woronka

JUN 7, 1950 - SEP 4, 2025

Michael A. Woronka, 75, of Coconut Blvd, Bunnell, died peacefully at his daughter's home in Palm Coast, Florida on Thursday, September 4th, 2025 after a long battle with COPD.

Born June 7, 1950, he was a son of the late Edmund "Butch" and Dolores Jean "Humenanski" Woronka. He attended Thomas Jefferson High School in Elizabeth, NJ and entered the Army shortly after high school. He was known best for his years as a contractor in New Jersey, and he is remembered fondly by friends he sponsored and helped in AA over the years. Michael was predeceased by his brother, Rick. Surviving Michael are daughters, Laurie, Jaime, and Tracy; brother, Dave, and several grandchildren.

Heritage Funeral & Cremation Service is handling Michael's cremation per his wishes. He did not want a service, but donations in Michael's name (aka Mike the Polack) can be made to your local AA program or at <https://www.aa.org/aa-contributions-self-support>.

Heritage Funeral and Cremation Service is assisting with arrangements.
