

Anthony M Ippolito

April 3, 1945 - April 26, 2020

Anthony M. Ippolito, 75, passed away on April 26, 2020 in Palm Coast, FL.

Those who knew Anthony "Tony" Ippolito will remember an incredibly proud patriot and Army Vietnam Veteran. He greeted every military member and fellow veteran with a hug and heartfelt thank you, followed by a long and friendly conversation. Despite being plagued with severe Agent Orange-related medical issues during his final years, he remained proud of his Army service and that time in his life courageously serving his country in Vietnam.

Tony spent most of his career in the construction industry. His personal life was filled with a passion for renovating and fixing absolutely anything and everything. He enjoyed finding house projects to transform into beautiful homes for his family. An expert in the construction industry, he was widely known as the go-to reference for anyone who needed advice, as well as a helping hand on whatever project was before them.

Tony was very proud of his children and grandchildren, evidenced by the wall to wall photos of good times throughout his home. He would regularly and openly share their accomplishments, big and small, to anyone he met. Known as "Dad" to more than his own children, he would lend an ear to anyone who needed someone to listen. Over the years, the continued connection to his growing circle of family and friends made him smile.

Perhaps no one was loved by Tony more than his wife Alice. This past November they celebrated 51 years of marriage, his proudest and most cherished accomplishment and life event.

Tony is survived by his wife Alice, his children Anthony Jr., Jennifer (Bruce), Brian, and Nicole (Dan), his grandchildren Katie, Matt, Steven, Daniel, Anastasia, and Abigail. He was preceded in death by his mother Lucy DESANTO Ippolito, his father Anthony Theodore Ippolito

A graveside committal will take place, Thursday, July 2, 2020 at Cape Canaveral National Cemetery at 3:00 PM.

“ I loved Tony the moment I met him over 20 years ago. He was so warm and kind, and such an incredible presence. His smile lit up the entire place. I loved how much he adored you Alice, Jenn, Niki , Anthony Jr., and Brian. I remember visiting him and Alice many years ago when Tony had a hip replacement. Despite his intense pain prior to surgery, he was laughing and joking, and beaming as Karen abs I had brought the girls for the trip too. Tony was one heroic and tough guy. You just felt so safe and cared for around him. Yet for such a tough guy, Tony was such a teddy bear, so dedicated to his family and friends, so bright. Such an amazing man with tremendous spirit. Oh how I will miss him greatly. To all of the Ippolito family and friends, my utmost condolences. To Tony, May you rest ever so easy, incredible man.

Love,

Heather

“ Tony was one if the finest, most loyal and dedicated friends I've ever had. I had the privilege of knowing and working with Tony after he left Philadelphia and went to Washington, DC. He worked both smart and hard, turning derilect buildings into beautiful homes, and turning lives around for some talented yet needy young people who only needed a chance to acquire basic skills. He was a teacher, counselor, craftsman and mentor to everyone he came in contact with.

Tony, at one point, was injured yet he never missed a beat - nor did he miss any opportunities to give his students s boost whenever a need arose. Tony was a fine man and as I said it was my sincere privilege to call him a friend.

He will definitely be missed by me and my family. Tony, may you rest in peace.
