“ I first met Tony in 1965, I believe - that was the year his wife Michele and I graduated from North Miami High School. What a long time it has been since then. He had such a positive drive, always focusing forward with great determination. He was my favorite dance partner, since he danced with complete joy and abandon, totally in the moment. It is hard to believe he has passed. I offer my sincere condolences to Michele, Jo and Gina, along with something my granny told me a long time ago - as long as even one person remembers you, you are never really gone.
