

Wayne Peter Lingaitis

September 26, 2013

Wayne Peter Lingaitis

Wayne Peter Lingaitis of Ormond Beach, FL passed away September 22, 2013 at home with his family after a long and courageous battle with cancer. Wayne was born March 1, 1946 in Lynn, MA, the son of Marie and Frank Losano.

Wayne will be remembered as a proud Veteran of the Vietnam War, serving his country in the US Air Force from 1966 to 1968 as an Air Freight Specialist. He was a life member of the American Legion and the Fraternal Order of Eagles.

He owned and operated WK Manufactured Housing Supply in Holly Hill, FL along with his wife, Kimberly. Wayne cherished his family and friends and lived life to the fullest. He will always be remembered for his amazing sense of humor, positive attitude and love of life. He was deeply loved and admired by all who were blessed to know him.

He was preceded in death by his father Francis Losano and his sister Donna Losano.

He is survived by his beloved wife of 23 years, Kimberly Lingaitis, his loving children; Chaz Lingaitis of Ormond Beach, FL, Shane Lingaitis of Franklin, MA, Lani Maggiacomo of Italy, Kim Downey of Groveland, MA, and Gina Brand, of NH. Also, Mother Marie Losano, brother John Lingaitis and sister Diane Dorrough, six grandchildren that he adored, and many many friends he considered his extended family.

A memorial service and reception celebrating Wayne's life will be held Saturday October 5, 2013 at 2:00 pm, at Trinity Presbyterian Church, 156 Florida Park Drive, Palm Coast, FL 32137. Memorial contributions may be made in Wayne's name to Halifax Health Hospice of Volusia/Flagler, 7 Florida Park Drive, Palm Coast, FL 32137.

All arrangements are under the direction of Heritage Funeral & Cremation Service, Flagler County, FL.

Comments

“ Miss you papa wayne <3

Nicholas Lingaitis - July 12, 2019 at 02:44 PM

“ Cindy and I were so sorry that Wayne has passed on. He's in a better place, free of pain and suffering. We will miss his friendly face and sharp wit. Our condolences to you, Kim, and your entire family.

Jim and Cindy Anderson - October 07, 2013 at 08:39 PM

“ Ken and I are so sorry for your loss. Wayne was loved by everyone who new him, he was truly a fun guy. I only wish we didn't live so far apart so we could have seen more of him. Sorrow is a tribute to a life that touched others deeply.

Carol Lomasney-Tibbetts - October 03, 2013 at 04:00 PM

“ I am so sorry for your loss. May you find comfort in each and every memory you have him. There is no more pain and suffering, no more waiting for big decisions to be made, no more long hours at the hospital, no more doctor visits just peace for Wayne. He is now in God's hands and we strive our whole lives to get there. Kim, you know he is up there with your dad being as ornery as ever. Hold on to that and the love you have for each other because that will help get you through. And if you ever need to talk I am only a phone call away. God bless you all.

Doug and Christina Cassidy - October 01, 2013 at 05:02 AM

“ Our deepest sympathy at your loss. He is free now to truly rest. Take comfort in the good memories.

Kristin and Tony Martino

Kristin and Anthony Martino - September 30, 2013 at 07:35 AM

“ As I write this I am weeping for the loss of another good man. God Speed Wayne, now you are free from pain and have become one of our angels.

Noreen Beltrami - September 29, 2013 at 03:36 PM

“ I'm so sorry we lost Wayne, he was one of the good guys. I was blessed to have Wayne in my life. We were a couple of Vietnam Vets and became really close brothers in arms. He gave the fight with cancer a heck of a fight and 5 1/2 years never felt sorry for himself and always wanted to go to work, I'm glad we had a special way to say good bye to each other. I hope Gods ready because heaven is in for alot of fun. I love you Wayne (brother) and thanks for the friendship. Cindy & Tim Rogers.

Tim & Cindy Rogers - September 28, 2013 at 09:11 AM